Filoli March Tour

By Wendie Worthen

The Cadillac LaSalle Club met up with the Hudson Essex Terraplain Club for a tour of Filoli's historic house and gardens in Woodside.

Filoli is also known as the Bourn-Roth Estate. It is set on the eastern slope of the Santa Cruz Mountains. Filoli served as one of the Bourns' residences from 1917 - 1936. This country house is set in 16 acres of formal gardens. The name Filoli comes from William Bourns' Credo "Fight for a just cause, Love your fellow man, Live a good life." We toured the estate independently but met up for lunch at the Quail Cafe on the Filoli grounds.

The main house consists of 56 rooms, 17 fireplaces, 15 bathrooms, and much more. It was designed by architect Willis Polk and took three years to construct. The cost then was $425,000. In today's dollars this would be over 8.5 million. The house also included a massive kitchen with 17-foot-high ceilings, where staff often prepared as many as 9 meals per day. The butler's pantry featured a walk in safe for storing the silver. Filoli was opened to the public in 1975.

Thank you Wendie for your beautiful photos.

CELEBRATION OF CADILLAC

On April 5th we had a Hillsborough Concours kick-off party hosted by Hal Schuette at the Candy Store in Burlingame. Gary Mills brought his 1907 Cadillac and Phil Toy brought his 1959 Cadillac Convertible.

Carolyn Dippel presented a history of Cadillac engines. Many thanks to Paul Bogwart for his help in arranging through the Art Academy two top student speakers, Kelsey Feehan and David Kim. The timing was perfect as they are working with Cadillac Designers. They were excellent! The event concluded with SCCA judges tip and questions. Many thanks to Hal Schuette and Carolyn Dippel for their hard work on this event.

Art Academy students/speakers David Kim and Kelsey Feehan (pictured by Phil Toy's 1959 Cad. Convert) each gave a outstanding presentation.
